

JMD Building Products submitted the annual update to the New York State Certifying Agency, Empire State Development (ESD), in October 2018. ESD has informed JMD that they have received my documentation and it is being reviewed. ESD is backed up in doing reviews. If JMD Building Products is listed in the NYS MWBE directory (<https://ny.newnycontracts.com/?TN=ny>), which it is, JMD is still an active and duly certified WBE with the State of New York.
